Correspondence:

- We received our bank and Waddell and Reed statements. We may finally have convinced the Post Office to not put other people's mail in our box.

Officers Reports:

- President: Darian reported on his participation in the annual Trail Heritage Foundation meeting. A particular highlight was a visit to the Arabia museum. There is a new book coming out on Clark's years before the expedition. We have a chance to join DESC and ride their boats on the Clearwater and Columbia Rivers. Darian also visited Floyd's grave.
- Vice President: None.
- Quartermaster: The store room has been rearranged to hopefully make it a little more accessible.
- Treasurer: We have $[REDACTED] in checking. Our Waddell and Reed account has $[REDACTED].
- Secretary: Norman reported on purchase of ammo boxes for storing cartridges. He also reported on his recent trip to Ft. Clatsop.

- We have a request for a flag presentation at the Meadow Lark Country Club on Labor Day. Darian, Norman, Austin, Lee, and Ron signed up.
- Darian suggested that we look into developing a presentation on the Camera Obscura.

Partner Report:

- Jeff LaRock mentioned that the Travel Channel is doing an episode with a George Shannon descendent and may want the Honor Guard's assistance. Areas might include cooking, fishing, fire starting, military drill, navigation.
- There is also the possibility of some television work with HGTV and the Living Big Sky.
- Voices in the Shadows is coming up in late October. It will involve presentations regarding 1807-1809—immediately after the expedition. Jeff is looking for portrayals of possibly Lewis, Clark, Droulliard, Manuel Lisa, Frederick Bates, Jefferson, Dearborn, and Shannon.

Adjournment:

- Mike Staigmiller moved, Ron Ukrainetz seconded, and the meeting adjourned at 7:55.

Respectfully submitted,
Norman Anderson, secretary
