Officers Reports:

- President: Dugan is back from New York and visited the Museum of Natural history and was baffled by the matchlock guns. President was contacted by Minnesota filmmaker Will Yates about a documentary on bull boats to be filmed in late September or late October. Yates also wanted information on Mandan legends. Ron mentioned a Mandan living in town. Seven tipi poles were broken during a storm/high wind. Walt has replacements. In regards to the cottonwood for the dugout Dugan called landowner Colleen but hasn't heard back.
- Vice President/Drill Sergeant: Walt Walker told us of PRC picnic back in August. Gave Norm commendation on his great presentation of his character re-enactment. Notified group of upcoming PRC annual meeting September 16th at the center.
- Quartermaster: Absent.
- Treasurer: Notified group of current balance in the checking account. $ [REDACTED].

Old Business:

- Group was contacted by members of the Trail Heritage Foundation on attending next year's annual meeting and would like to request the group to be the re-enactors. Norm shared an idea of delivering a presentation on black powder ballistics. Discussion was held on the topic to determine how to proceed.
- Jeff LaRock explained the upcoming voices in the shadows on the topic of the war of 1812 and the involvement of the Lewis and Clark Expedition members. Dates are October 19, 20, 26 and 27th starting at 7pm.

New Business:

- Dugan mentioned a blacksmith from Missoula named Joe Hickman wishing to participate with the group.
- Walt notified us about his brother who will be doing a presentation on his bird photography later on in the year.
- Austin Haney shared his fishing kit and story of the bites he got but his failure to catch any fish with it and he wishes to construct weirs he can file a collection permit with Fish Wildlife and Parks to use them.

Adjournment:

Meeting was motioned to adjourn at 7:55 pm by Norm. John seconded.
