Officers Reports:

- President: Darian passed around a get-well card for Hal. He also reported on our GFHS presentation and that they want us to return in March.
- Vice President: We rented our teepee for $220 to a wedding on the weekend of September 17. Paris Gibson is considering a hide teepee which we might be able to use.
- Quartermaster: All the gear is returned from GFHS. Our new storage at the LCIC is an improvement. Austin will not stand for reelection.
- Treasurer: We have $ [REDACTED] in checking after $2.50 was taken out for service costs. Our Waddell and Reed report did not yet arrive.
- Secretary: Nothing.

Old Business:

- We have a camera obscura on order.
- The shoot at Harry Mitchell's needs to be rescheduled. However, Darian conducted training at River Camp, and Joe G. is now certified to shoot.

New Business:

- We have scheduled our Christmas dinner for 12/6 at 4:00 in the LCIC.
- The nominating committee will meet at 6:30 before the November meeting to deal with officer selection.
- The LCIC will soon have a non-functioning Girandoni air rifle.

Partner Report:

- Duane Buchi is officially permanent at the LCIC.
- The new manager, Andrea Tavigia, may arrive in time for Voices in the Shadows.
- There will be a Voices dress rehearsal on 10/19 at 5:30.
- Wildlife photographer Tom Ulrich will make a presentation at the Center on 11/19.

Adjournment:

- Dugan Coburn moved, Marcia Anderson seconded, and the meeting adjourned at 8:14.

Respectfully submitted,
Norman Anderson, secretary
